

Marvel and Activision's X-Men: The Official Game Takes a Stand on Retail Shelves Nationwide

SANTA MONICA, Calif., May 16, 2006 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Inspired by Marvel Entertainment's legendary Super Hero franchise and serving as a prelude to the upcoming Twentieth Century Fox and Marvel Studios' feature film "X-Men: The Last Stand," Activision, Inc.'s (Nasdaq: ATVI) X-Men: The Official Game premieres today at retail outlets nationwide. The game catapults players into an original storyline that allows them to command the distinct powers of Wolverine, Nightcrawler and Iceman as they battle classic Brotherhood villains including Sabretooth, Lady Deathstrike and Multiple Man and traverse unique environments that showcase each character's abilities while embarking on an epic quest to save mutant-kind.

X-Men: The Official Game is the first Super Hero game for the Xbox(TM) 360 video game system from Microsoft and is available for a suggested retail price of $59.99. The PlayStation(R)2 computer entertainment system, the Xbox(TM) video game system from Microsoft and the Nintendo(R) GameCube(TM) versions are available for a suggested retail price of $39.99. The PC, Nintendo DS(TM) and Game Boy(R) Advance versions are available for a suggested retail price of $29.99. The console and PC games have been rated "T" ("Teen" -- violence) and the handheld games have been rated "E-10+" ("Everyone 10 and older" -- fantasy violence) by the ESRB.

"In X-Men: The Official Game, players will experience the events leading up to the 'X-Men: The Last Stand' feature film," said Will Kasoy, vice president of global brand management, Activision, Inc. "Co-written by Zak Penn, the screenwriter of the film, and legendary comic book writer Chris Claremont, and featuring the voice talent of Hugh Jackman, Patrick Stewart, Shawn Ashmore and Alan Cumming, the game truly enables players to become a part of the X-Men movie universe."

For the first time, X-Men: The Official Game lets players truly experience the powers of three popular Super Heroes from the X-Men movie universe by allowing them to take on the roles of Wolverine, Nightcrawler and Iceman as they wield and upgrade their signature powers and maneuver through unique environments designed to showcase their Super Hero abilities. Assisted by other X-Men characters including Storm and Colossus, players will use an advanced control scheme to master and control the characters as they unleash Wolverine's combat rage, experience Nightcrawler's acrobatics and teleportation powers and glide through the air on Iceman's ice slide.
