All of the selling stockholders acquired their shares of Activision common stock in connection with Activision's acquisition on September 30, 1999 of JCM Productions, Inc. dba Neversoft Entertainment, a California based console software development company. The selling stockholders were all of the stockholders of Neversoft.

Activision will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares being offered by the selling stockholders.

Activision's common stock is traded in the NASDAQ National Market System under the symbol "ATVI." On January 6, 2000, the last sale price for the common stock as reported on the NASDAQ National Market System was $15.6875 per share.

No underwriting is being used in connection with this offering of common stock. The shares of common stock are being offered without underwriting discounts. The expenses of this registration will be paid by Activision. Normal brokerage commissions, discounts and fees will be payable by the selling stockholders.

For a discussion of certain matters that should be considered by prospective investors, see "Risk Factors" starting on page 2 of this Prospectus.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the shares of common stock offered or sold under this prospectus or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

This prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any state where the offer or sale is not permitted.

The date of this Prospectus is _____, 2000.

RISK FACTORS

Before purchasing any of the shares of Common Stock being offered, prospective investors should carefully consider the following factors in addition to the other information contained in this Prospectus or incorporated by reference into it.

We caution you to be aware of the speculative nature of "forward-looking statements" made by, or on behalf of, our employees and representatives. Such statements:

- are defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995;
- may be oral or written;
- do not include recitations of historical facts;
- can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology (e.g. "may," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" or "continue") or the negative of such terminology.

We further caution you that there are numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from those referred to in such forward-looking statements. The discussion below highlights some of the more important risks identified by management, but you should not assume them to be the only factors that could affect future performance. We caution that we do not have a policy of updating or revising forward-looking statements and therefore silence by management over time does not mean that actual events are occurring as anticipated in such forward-looking statements.

Fluctuations in our quarterly net revenues and operating results make future predictions uncertain.

Our quarterly operating results have varied in the past and can be expected to vary in the future. These variations are caused by a number of different factors, many of which are beyond our control. Such factors include:

- demand for our products;
- the size and rate of growth of the interactive entertainment and leisure markets;
- development and promotional expenses relating to the introduction of new products;
- changes in computer operating systems and video game platforms;
- product returns;
- the timing of orders from major customers;
- delays in product shipments;
- the level of price competition;
- the timing of product introductions by Activision and its competitors;
- product life cycles;
- product defects and other quality problems;
- the level of our international revenues; and
- personnel changes.

As a result of the above-mentioned factors, revenues and operating results for any future quarter cannot be predicted with any significant degree of accuracy. Thus, period-to-period comparisons of our operating results are not necessarily meaningful and should not be relied upon as indications of future performance.

Our business has experienced, and is expected to continue to experience, significant seasonality. Typically, our net revenues are significantly higher during the fourth calendar quarter because of increased demand for consumer software during the year-end holiday buying season. Net revenues and net income in other calendar quarters are generally lower and vary significantly as a result of new product introductions and other factors.

Our revenues and our competitive position could be negatively affected if our new products are not successful or timely introduced.

Our future success depends in part on the timely introduction of successful new products as well as sequels or enhancements of existing products. These products are necessary to replace declining revenues from older products. A significant delay in the release of products or the failure of new products to replace declining revenues from older products could materially and negatively affect our business, operating results and financial condition. In addition, competitive factors in the entertainment and leisure software industries often create the need for higher quality, distinctive products with increasingly sophisticated effects. This in turn makes it difficult to produce and release such products on a timely basis and results in higher development, acquisition and marketing costs. The seasonality of Activision's business further highlights this problem. Moreover, because a large portion of a product's revenue generally is associated with initial shipments, the delay of a product introduction expected near the end of a fiscal quarter may have a material negative effect on operating results for that quarter. Activision does not assure that new products will be introduced on schedule, or at all, or that they will achieve market acceptance or generate significant revenues.

We rely in significant part on external developers, over whom we have less control than internal staff.

Although we intend to continue to rely in part on products that are developed by our own employees, over the last several fiscal years the percentage of products published by us that are developed by independent third party developers has increased significantly. Also, occasionally we use independent contractors for certain aspects of our internal product development and production. Naturally, we have less control over the timing and the quality of work of these independent contractors and third party developers, as compared to our own employees. A delay in the work performed by independent contractors and third party developers may result in delays in the release of products. In addition, if our independent contractors and third party developers produce poor quality work, there is a greater chance that our products will not be successful.

In addition, our future success will depend, in significant part, on our continued ability to maintain relationships and obtain development agreements on favorable terms with skilled independent contractors and third party developers. We cannot assure you that we will be able to establish or maintain relationships with independent contractors and third party developers.

Failure of our new products to achieve or sustain market acceptance may have a material negative effect on our business.

The market for entertainment and leisure systems and software has been characterized by shifts in consumer preferences and short product life cycles. Consumer preferences for entertainment and leisure software products are difficult to predict and few products achieve sustained market acceptance. We cannot assure that our newly introduced products will achieve any significant degree of market acceptance, nor can we assure you that any such market acceptance will continue for any significant period of time. Finally, we cannot assure you that product life cycles will be sufficient to permit us to recover our development, marketing and other related costs. In addition, if market acceptance is not achieved, we could be forced to accept substantial product returns to maintain relationships with our retailers. Failure of new products to achieve or sustain market acceptance or product returns in excess of our expectations would have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

We depend on a limited number of hit products to produce a large portion of our revenues. The failure of any of these products to achieve anticipated results may negatively affect our business.

A significant portion of our revenues are derived from a relatively small number of products we release each year. In addition, many of these products have substantial production or acquisition costs and marketing budgets. For example, during fiscal 1998, one product accounted for approximately 10.2% of our consolidated net revenues. All other products individually accounted for less than 10% of our consolidated net revenues. During fiscal 1999, no single product accounted for greater than 10% of our consolidated net revenues. However, we expect that a limited number of products will continue to produce a disproportionate amount of our revenues. Due to this dependence on a limited number of products, the failure of one or more of these products to achieve anticipated results may have a material negative effect on Activision's business, operating results and financial results.

Another key component of our business strategy is publishing titles that have franchise value, so that sequels, enhancements and add-on products can be released over time. Focusing on franchise properties, if successful, both extends the life of the product in the market and results in dependence on a limited number of titles for our revenues. We make no assurances that existing franchise titles will continue to be as successful as they have been in the past. Also, new products that we believe will have potential value as franchise properties may not achieve market acceptance and therefore may not become a basis for future releases.

Significant competition in our industry could negatively affect our business.

The interactive entertainment and leisure software industries are highly competitive. Competition in these industries is largely based on:

- product quality and features;
- compatibility of products with popular platforms;
- company or product line brand name recognition;
- access to distribution channels;
- effectiveness of marketing campaigns;
- product reliability and ease of use;
- price; and
- technical support.

The level of financial resources of a publisher also has become a competitive factor in these industries. This is mainly due to the substantial cost of product development and marketing required to support best-selling titles. In addition, competitors with broad product lines and popular titles typically have greater influence with retailers. Thus, retailers and other customers may be willing to promote titles with less consumer appeal in return for access to such competitor's most popular titles.

Activision's competitors range from small companies with limited resources to large companies with substantially greater financial, technical and marketing resources than those of Activision. Activision's competitors currently include:

- Acclaim;
- Eidos
- Electronic Arts;
- GT Interactive;
- Hasbro;
- Havas;
- Infogrames;
- LucasArts;
- Mattel;
- Microsoft;
- Nintendo;
- Sega; and
- Sony, among many others.

Increased competition may result in price reductions, increased production costs and reduced profit margins. Prolonged price competition or reduced demand would have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition. We make no assurances that we will be able to compete successfully against current or future competitors. We also warn that competitive pressures facing Activision may have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

There also exists intense competition among entertainment and leisure software producers over the limited amount of "shelf space" available at retail stores and the promotional support that can be obtained from these retailers. As the number of interactive entertainment and leisure products has increased, the competition for shelf space has intensified. This has resulted in greater power for retailers and distributors in negotiating terms of sale, including price discounts and product return policies. Our products constitute a relatively small percentage of a retailer's sales volume. Thus, there are no assurances that retailers will continue to purchase our products or promote our products with adequate levels of shelf space and promotional support.

Our dependence on certain retailers and wholesalers exposes us to risks of those retailers' and wholesalers' business failures as well as product returns.

Retailers in the computer and video game industries have from time to time experienced significant fluctuations in their businesses and there have been a number of business failures among these retailers. The loss of, or significant reduction in sales attributable to, any of our principal retailers could materially negatively effect our business, operating results and financial condition.

Certain mass market retailers have established an exclusive buying relationship with an intermediary whereby the retailers will buy our products only from the intermediary. Where this is the case, the price or other terms on which we may sell to these retailers may be negatively effected by the terms imposed by the intermediary. Further, if the terms imposed by the intermediary are unacceptable to us, we may be unable to sell to certain retailers at all.

Customer sales typically are made on credit, with terms that vary depending upon the customer and the nature of the product. We do not hold collateral to secure payment, but we do have insurance to protect against any bankruptcy, insolvency, or liquidation of our customers. This insurance, however, contains a significant deductible as well as a co-payment obligation, and the policy does not cover all instances of customer non-payment. In addition, we maintain a reserve for uncollectible receivables that we believe to be adequate, but it may not be sufficient in every circumstance. Thus, a payment default by a significant customer could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

We are also exposed to the risk of product returns from retailers and other wholesale purchasers. Although we provide reserves for returns that we believe are adequate, and although limits are placed on certain product returns, we may be forced to accept substantial product returns to maintain our relationships with retailers and our access to distribution channels. Product returns that exceed our reserves could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

Our business may be negatively affected if we are unable to anticipate and respond timely and effectively to rapidly changing technology and industry standards.

The consumer software industry is undergoing rapid changes, including evolving industry standards, frequent new platform introductions and changes in consumer requirements and preferences. The introduction of new technologies, including new console systems such as Sega's Dreamcast and Sony's PlayStation 2, new technologies that support multi-player games, and new media formats such as on-line delivery and digital video disks, could cause our previously released products to become obsolete or unmarketable. The development cycle for products using new technology may be significantly longer than our current development cycle for products using existing technology and may require us to invest resources in products that may not become profitable. We cannot assure that our future mix of products will keep pace with technological changes or satisfy evolving consumer preferences. We also cannot assure that we will be successful in developing and marketing products for any future operating system or format. Failure to develop and introduce new products and product enhancements in a timely fashion could result in significant product returns and inventory obsolescence, which in turn could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

We have substantial indebtedness that exposes us to certain risks.

As of September 30, 1999, we had outstanding $60,000,000 of 6% convertible subordinated notes due 2005. In June 1999, we obtained a term loan and revolving credit facility composed of a $25 million term loan and up to $100 million of revolving credit loans and letters of credit. The proceeds of the term loan, which is due in June 2002, were used to complete the acquisition of Expert Software, Inc. and to pay expenses associated with that acquisition and the financing transaction. The revolving credit facility will be used for working capital and general corporate purposes.

The term loan and the revolving credit facility are secured by a pledge of substantially all of the assets of Activision and of its US subsidiaries. The credit facility contains various financial and other obligations with which we and our subsidiaries must comply. If we were to default under the terms of the credit facility, either as a result of a failure to pay principal or interest when due or as a result of a breach of a financial or other obligation, the lenders could stop providing funds and letters of credit to us. Additionally, the lenders could declare an event of default and foreclose on the collateral. This could also result in an acceleration of the convertible subordinated notes. A default by Activision under the revolving credit and term loan facility would materially negatively effect

Activision's business and could result in Activision declaring bankruptcy.

Our operations and those of our key suppliers and service providers may be subject to year 2000 issues which could affect our business or that of our suppliers.

The year 2000 date issue arises from the fact that many computer systems and applications currently use only two digits to identify the year in date fields. As a result, date-sensitive systems may recognize the year 2000 as 1900, or may not recognize the year 2000 at all. This could result in either miscalculations or system failures. As of January 11, 2000, the date of this Prospectus, however, we have not experienced any material interruptions in or adverse impact on our business operations nor have we experienced any negative impact on our financial condition as a result of year 2000 issues. We could, however, experience certain problems related to the year 2000 in the future.

We prepared our internal computer and embedded systems for the year 2000 and implemented changes to ease potential year 2000 problems. To accomplish this, we purchased and implemented software programs that have been independently developed by third parties which test year 2000 compliance for the majority of our systems.

All of our products currently being shipped were tested for year 2000 compliance and passed such tests. In addition, all products currently in development are being tested as part of the normal quality assurance testing process and are scheduled to be released fully year 2000 compliant. However, if the computer system on which a consumer uses our products is not year 2000 compliant, it could affect the consumer's ability to use some of our products.

Our contingency plans include adding network operating systems to back-up our current network server and developing back-up plans for telecommunications with external offices and customers. In addition, we have a staffing plan to handle orders manually should there be a failure of electronic data interchange connections with our customers and suppliers. We believe that the items mentioned above constitute our greatest risk of exposure and that the plans developed by us will be adequate for handling these items should any problems arise.

We took steps to verify that the products and services of our critical suppliers are year 2000 compliant. In response to a questionnaire we distributed, all of our critical suppliers and trading partners confirmed our expectation that they will continue to be able to provide services and products through the change to 2000. As of January 11, 2000, we have not experienced any material interruptions in the delivery of products or services by our critical suppliers.

We completed year 2000 compliance testing on all of our critical systems and the total cost of our year 2000 compliance plan was approximately $100,000. Such total cost does not include potential costs related to any systems used by our customers, any third party claims, or the costs of the replacement of internal software and hardware which occurs in the normal course of our business. The overall cost of our year 2000 compliance plan was a minor portion of our total information technology budget and has not to date materially delayed the implementation of any other unrelated projects that we have planned to undertake.

The above-mentioned year 2000 issues have not to date had a material negative impact on our financial condition or results of operations. However, the specific extent to which we may be affected by such matters in the future is not certain. In addition, the failure by a supplier or another third party to ensure year 2000 compatibility could have a material negative effect on us.

The impact of the EURO conversion on our operations will not be significant.

On January 1, 1999, eleven of the fifteen member countries of the European Union adopted the "euro" as their common currency. From January 1, 1999 through January 1, 2002, the participating countries will be able to use their sovereign currencies or the euro. Beginning January 1, 2002, the participating countries will issue new euro-denominated bills and coins for use in cash transactions. No later than July 1, 2002, the participating countries will withdraw all bills and coins denominated in the sovereign currencies, so that the sovereign currencies will no longer be legal tender for any transactions, making conversion to the euro complete.

After conducting an internal analysis, we have determined that the impact of the conversion will not be significant to our overall operations. Our wholly owned subsidiaries operating in participating countries represented 24.1% and 22.1% of Activision's consolidated net revenues for the fiscal years ended March 31, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

We may not be able to protect our proprietary rights and may infringe on the proprietary rights of others.

We hold copyrights on the products, manuals, advertising and other materials we own. We also maintain trademark rights in the Activision name, the Activision logo, and the names of the products and companies we own. We regard our software as proprietary and rely primarily on a combination of trademark, copyright and trade secret laws, employee and third-party nondisclosure agreements, and other methods to protect our proprietary rights. Unauthorized copying commonly occurs within the software industry. If a significant amount of unauthorized copying of our products were to occur, our business, operating results and financial condition could be negatively effected.

There can be no assurance that third parties will not assert infringement claims against us in the future with respect to current or future products. As is common in the industry, we sometimes receive notices from third parties claiming infringement of intellectual property rights of such parties. We investigate these claims and respond as we deem appropriate. Any claims or litigation, with or without merit, could be costly and could result in a diversion of management's attention, which could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition. Negative determinations in such claims or litigation could also have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

Software piracy (the unauthorized use of its products) exists and will likely remain a persistent problem. Activision is unable to determine the extent to which piracy of its software products exists. In selling our products, we rely primarily on "shrink wrap" licenses that are not signed by licensees and, therefore, may be unenforceable under the laws of certain jurisdictions. Further, we enter into transactions in countries where intellectual property laws are not well developed or are poorly enforced. Thus, legal protections of our intellectual property rights may be ineffective in those countries.

Our failure to retain or failure to hire qualified key personnel could have a material negative effect on our business.

Our success depends to a significant extent on the performance and continued service of our senior management and certain key employees. Competition for highly skilled employees with technical, management, marketing, sales, product development and other specialized training is intense, and we may not be successful in attracting and retaining such personnel. As a result, we may experience increased costs to attract and retain skilled employees. There is no guarantee that key employees will not leave Activision or compete against Activision, despite the fact such employees have entered into term employment agreements. Our failure to attract or retain qualified employees could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

Our significant international operations subjects us to certain economic and political risks which could materially negatively effect our business.

In the past three years, our international revenues have accounted for a significant portion of our total revenues. International sales and licenses accounted for 65% of our total revenues in the fiscal year 1997, 71% of our total revenues in the fiscal year 1998, and 66% of our total revenues in the fiscal year 1999. We expect that international revenues will continue to account for a significant portion of our total revenues in the future. We intend to continue to expand our direct and indirect sales, marketing and localization activities worldwide. This expansion will require significant management time and attention and financial resources in order to develop adequate international sales and support channels. However, in addition to the possibility that we may not be able to maintain or increase international market demand for our products, international sales are subject to certain inherent risks, including:

- the impact of possible recessionary environments in economies outside the United States;
- the costs of transferring and localizing products for foreign markets;
- longer receivable collection periods and greater difficulty in collecting accounts receivable;
- unexpected changes in regulatory requirements, tariffs and other barriers;
- difficulties and costs of staffing and managing foreign operations;
- and
- political and economic instability.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to sustain or increase our international revenues or that the foregoing factors will not have a material negative effect on our future international revenues and, consequently, on our business, operating results and financial condition. Presently, we do not engage in currency hedging activities. Although exposure to currency fluctuations to date has been insignificant, fluctuations in currency exchange rates may in the future have a material negative impact on revenues from international sales and licensing and thus our business, operating results and financial condition.

Our products may contain errors or defects, which may result in a loss of or delay in market acceptance of the products.

The type of products we offer frequently contains errors or defects. Despite extensive product testing, in the past we have released products with defects and have discovered errors in our products after their introduction. In particular, personal computer ("PC") hardware is characterized by a wide variety of non-standard peripherals (such as sound cards and graphics cards) and configurations that make pre-release testing for programming or compatibility errors very difficult and time-consuming. Despite testing by Activision, errors could nonetheless be found in new products after commercial shipments begin. This may result in a loss of or delay in market acceptance, which could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

We may be at a competitive disadvantage if we are unable to successfully integrate our recently acquired subsidiaries or find suitable additional acquisition opportunities.

We are currently integrating the operations of our recently acquired subsidiaries, CD Contact, Expert Software, Elsinore Multimedia, and Neversoft Entertainment with our previously existing operations. This process, as well as the process of managing these significant new operations, requires substantial management time and effort and diverts the attention of management from other matters. In addition, there is a risk of loss of key employees, customers and vendors of the recently acquired operations as well as existing operations as this process is implemented. There is a risk we may not be successful in integrating these operations.

Consistent with our strategy of enhancing our distribution and product development capabilities, we intend to continue to pursue acquisitions of companies, properties and other assets that can be purchased or licensed on acceptable terms and which we believe can be operated or exploited profitably. Some of these transactions could be material in size and scope. While we will continually be searching for additional acquisition opportunities, we may not be successful in identifying suitable acquisitions. We may not be able to consummate potential acquisitions or an acquisition may not enhance our business or be maximizing to our earnings. As the interactive entertainment and leisure businesses continue to consolidate, we face significant competition in seeking and consummating acquisition opportunities. Future acquisitions could also divert substantial management time and result in short term reductions in earnings or special transaction or other charges. In addition, future acquisitions may be difficult to integrate with existing operations or assets.

In the future, we may issue additional shares of common stock in connection with one or more acquisitions, which may dilute our existing shareholders. Our shareholders may not have the opportunity to review, vote, or evaluate future acquisitions.

Failure to maintain our distribution relationships with certain key vendors could have a material negative effect on us.

Our CD Contact subsidiary performs software distribution services in Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Our CentreSoft subsidiary performs software distribution services in the United Kingdom and, via export, in other European territories. Each of CD Contact and CentreSoft performs these services for a variety of entertainment software publishers, many of whom are competitors of ours. These services are generally performed under limited term contracts, some of which provide for cancellation in the event of a change of control. Despite our reasonable efforts to retain these vendors, we may not be successful in this regard. The cancellation or non-renewal of one or more of these contracts could have a material negative effect on our business, operating results and financial condition.

THE COMPANY

Activision, Inc. is a leading international publisher, developer and distributor of interactive entertainment and leisure products. The Company's products span a wide range of product genres (including action, adventure, strategy and simulation) and target markets (including game enthusiasts, value buyers and children). In addition to its genre and market diversity, Activision publishes, develops and distributes products for a variety of game platforms, including personal computers ("PCs"), the Sony PlayStation console system and the Nintendo 64 console system.

Activision's objective is to be a worldwide leader in the development, publishing and distribution of quality interactive entertainment and leisure products that deliver, at each point of the value spectrum, a highly satisfying experience. The Company's strategy includes the following elements:

Create and maintain a balanced and diversified portfolio of operations. The Company has assembled a large diversified portfolio of development, publishing and distribution operations and relationships which are complementary and, at the same time, reduce the Company's risk of concentration on any one developer, brand, platform, customer or market. The Company has focused historically on the development and publishing of premium games which provide the most sophisticated game play and entertainment experience at the top price point. While the Company will continue to take advantage of its expertise in this area, it has recently diversified its business operations and product and audience mix, and plans on continuing such diversification in the future. For example, the Company acquired several separate companies in the last two years in order to establish the distribution business. Additionally, the Company believes that its recent acquisition of Expert Software, along with the Company's acquisition in June 1998 of Head Games, positions the Company as a leading publisher of "value" products for the PC, which are characterized by less sophisticated game play and lower price points. Further, the Company publishes and distributes titles that run on a variety of platforms (PC, Sony PlayStation, Nintendo 64 and Sega Dreamcast). This diversification significantly reduces the risk of downturn or underperformance in any of the Company's individual operations.

Create and maintain strong brands. The Company focuses its development and publishing activities principally on titles that are, or have the potential to become, franchise properties with sustainable consumer appeal and brand recognition. These titles can thereby serve as the basis for sequels, prequels, mission packs and other add-ons and related new titles that can be released over an extended period of time. The Company believes that the publishing and distribution of products based in large part on franchise properties enhances revenue predictability and the probability of high unit volume sales and operating profits. In addition, the Company has entered into a series of strategic partnerships with the owners of intellectual property pursuant to which the Company has acquired the rights to publish titles based on franchises such as Star Trek, various Disney films such as Toy Story 2, A Bug's Life and Tarzan, and X-men.

Focus on on-time delivery. The success of the Company's publishing business is dependent, in significant part, on its ability to develop games that will generate high unit volume sales that can be completed in accordance with planned budgets and schedules. In order to increase its ability to achieve this objective, the Company's publishing units have implemented a formal control process for the development of the Company's products. This process includes three key elements: (i) in-depth reviews are conducted for each project at five intervals during the development process by a team that includes several of the Company's highest ranking operating managers; (ii) each project is led by a small team which is heavily incentivized to deliver a high-quality product, on-schedule and within budget; and (iii) day-to-day progress is monitored by a dedicated process manager in order to insure that issues, if any, are promptly identified and addressed in a timely manner.

Leverage infrastructure and organization. The Company is continually striving to reduce its risk and increase its operating leverage and efficiency through the variabilization of expenses. For example, the Company has significantly increased its product making capabilities by allocating a larger portion of its product development investments to experienced independent development companies. These companies generally are small firms focused on a particular product type, run and owned by individuals willing to take development risk by accepting payments based on the completion of fixed performance milestones in exchange for a royalty on the revenue stream of the game after the Company recoups its development costs. The Company has also broadly instituted objective-based reward programs that provide incentives to management and staff to produce results that meet the Company's financial objectives.

Grow through continued strategic acquisitions. The interactive entertainment and leisure industries are consolidating, and the Company believes that success in these industries will be driven in part by the ability to take advantage of scale. Specifically, smaller companies are more capital constrained, enjoy less predictability of revenues and cashflow, lack product diversity and must spread fixed costs over a smaller revenue base. Several industry leaders are emerging that combine the entrepreneurial and creative spirit of the industries with professional management, the ability to access the capital markets and the ability to maintain favorable relationships with strategic developers, property owners, and retailers. Through nine completed acquisitions since 1997, the Company believes that it has successfully diversified its operations, its channels of distribution and its library of titles and has emerged as one of the industry's leaders.

The Company's principal executive offices are located at 3100 Ocean Park Boulevard, Santa Monica, California 90405, and its telephone number is (310) 255-2000. The Company also maintains offices in the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Japan, Australia, Belgium, The Netherlands, New York, New York, Madison, Wisconsin, St. Paul, Minnesota, Hollywood and Coral Gables, Florida and Woodland Hills, California. CERTAIN FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On September 30, 1999, Activision consummated its acquisition of JCM Productions, Inc. dba Neversoft Entertainment, a California based console software development company ("Neversoft"), pursuant to which shares of Activision common stock were issued to the selling stockholders hereunder. The transaction was accounted for by Activision as a pooling of interests. As a result of such transaction, under the current guidelines of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Activision is required to restate all historical financial statements for all relevant reporting periods to reflect the pooling of interests transaction. Subsequent to the consummation of the transaction, Activision filed its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 1999, which report reflected the combination of the Company and Neversoft for the six month period during the current year as to which the report relates and also included a restated March 31, 1999 balance sheet and a restated statement of operations for the six month period ended September 30, 1998. Activision intends to file restated consolidated financial statements in its regular quarterly and annual reports to be filed after the date hereof.

The following table sets forth, on an unaudited basis, certain financial information for Activision, and for Activision and Neversoft on a combined basis, for the fiscal years ending March 31, 1999 and March 31, 1998 and for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 1999, and the net effect of the transaction on the previously reported Activision financial statements, which information will also be reflected in the fully restated financial statements to be filed by Activision in its Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2000.

All net proceeds from the sale of the Activision shares of common stock will go to the stockholders who offer and sell their shares. Accordingly, the Company will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the common stock being offered hereby for the account of the selling stockholders.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of Activision common stock by the selling stockholders as of January 6, 2000, and the number of shares of common stock being offered by this prospectus.

* Less than 1%.

(1) Percentages are based on 25,160,097 shares of common stock that were issued and outstanding as of December 31, 1999.

The Company entered into an agreement and plan of reorganization (the "Merger Agreement") with Neversoft Entertainment and Joel Jewett, Michael West and Christopher Ward, who were the sole shareholders of Neversoft. The transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement was consummated on September 30, 1999. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Neversoft Selling Stockholders agreed not to sell, pledge, gift, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of the shares of Activision Common Stock received in the transaction until the issuance by Activision of its first earnings press release containing at least thirty (30) days of combined operations of Activision's and Neversoft's businesses. Activision estimates that this restriction on the transfer of shares will lapse in January 2000.

In order to ensure that the representations, warranties and covenants made by the former Neversoft stockholders under the Merger Agreement are not breached, and in order to provide a source of indemnification to Activision pursuant to such agreement, each of the former Neversoft stockholders deposited in escrow pursuant to a warranty escrow agreement ten percent (10%) of the total number of shares of Common Stock issued to such stockholder in connection with the transaction, an aggregate of 69,885 shares of Common Stock, to be held until the earlier of (i) September 30, 2000, (ii) the date on which Activision's auditors complete their first fiscal year end audit of financial statements containing combined operations of Activision's and Neversoft's businesses, or (iii) the date set forth in a joint written direction executed by Activision and the former Neversoft stockholders.

Prior to the acquisition of Neversoft by Activision, Neversoft was party to various development agreements with Activision. Other than such contracts and the fact that the selling stockholders are employees of Neversoft, which became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company in September 1999 pursuant to the Merger Agreement, none of the selling stockholders has had a material relationship with the Company within the past three years.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

Each outstanding share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock can elect all of the directors then standing for election. Subject to preferences which may be applicable to any outstanding shares of preferred stock, holders of Common Stock are entitled to such distributions as may be declared from time to time by directors of the Company out of funds legally available therefor. The Company has not paid, and has no current plans to pay, dividends on its Common Stock. The Company intends to retain all earnings for use in its business.

Holders of Common Stock have no conversion, redemption or preemptive rights to subscribe to any securities of the Company. All outstanding shares of Common Stock are fully paid and nonassessable. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the affairs of the Company, holders of Common Stock will be entitled to share ratably in the assets of the Company remaining after provision for payment of liabilities to creditors and preferences applicable to outstanding shares of preferred stock.

The rights, preferences and privileges of holders of Common Stock are subject to the rights of the holders of any outstanding shares of preferred stock. At present, no shares of preferred stock are outstanding. As of January 6, 2000, the Company had approximately 5,000 stockholders of record, excluding banks, brokers and depository companies that are stockholders of record for the account of beneficial owners.

The transfer agent for the Common Stock of the Company is Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 2 Broadway, New York, New York 10004.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Common Stock may be sold from time to time by the Selling Stockholders, or by pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest. Such sales may be made on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market, or otherwise, at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price, or in negotiated transactions. The shares may be sold from time to time in one or more of the following transactions, without limitation: (a) a block trade in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction, (b) purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by such broker or dealer or for its account pursuant to the Prospectus, as supplemented, (c) an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of such exchange, and (d) ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers. In addition, any securities covered by this Prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this Prospectus, as supplemented. From time to time the Selling Stockholders may engage in short sales, short sales against the box, puts and calls and other transactions in securities of the Company or derivatives thereof, and may sell and deliver the shares in connection therewith.

From time to time Selling Stockholders may pledge their shares pursuant to the margin provisions of their respective customer agreements with their respective brokers. Upon a default by a Selling Stockholder, the broker may offer and sell the pledged shares of Common Stock from time to time as described above.

All expenses of registration of the Common Stock (other than commissions and discounts of underwriters, dealers or agents), estimated to be approximately $18,000, shall be borne by the Company. As and when the Company is required to update this Prospectus, it may incur additional expenses in excess of this estimated amount.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), paragraph B of Article SIXTH of the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and paragraph 5 of Article VII of the Company's By-laws provide for the indemnification of the Company's directors and officers in a variety of circumstances, which may include liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

Paragraph B of Article SIXTH of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides mandatory indemnification rights to any officer or director of the Company who, by reason of the fact that he or she is an officer or director of the Company, is involved in a legal proceeding of any nature. Such indemnification rights shall include reimbursement for expenses incurred by such officer or director in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding in accordance with the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Paragraph 5 of Article VII of the Company's By-laws currently provide that the Company shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL.

Paragraph A of Article SIXTH of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation contains a provision which eliminates the personal liability of a director to the Company and its stockholders for certain breaches of his or her fiduciary duty of care as a director. This provision does not, however, eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director (i) for any breach of such director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under the Delaware statutory provision making directors personally liable, under a negligence standard, for unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This provision offers persons who serve on the Board of Directors of the Company protection against awards of monetary damages resulting from negligent (except as indicated above) and "grossly" negligent actions taken in the performance of their duty of care, including grossly negligent business decisions made in connection with takeover proposals for the Company. As a result of this provision, the ability of the Company or a stockholder thereof to successfully prosecute an action against a director for a breach of his duty of care has been limited. However, the provision does not affect the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based upon a director's breach of his duty of care.

The Company maintains a directors' and officers' insurance policy which insures the officers and directors of the Company from any claim arising out of an alleged wrongful act by such persons in their respective capacities as officers and directors of the Company. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its officers and directors containing provisions which are in some respects broader than the specific indemnification provisions contained in the DGCL. The indemnification agreements require the Company, among other things, to indemnify such officers and directors against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors or officers (other than liabilities arising from willful misconduct of a culpable nature) and to advance their expenses incurred as a result of any proceeding against them as to which they could be indemnified. The Company believes that these agreements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

It is currently unclear as a matter of law what impact these provisions will have regarding securities law violations. The Commission takes the position that indemnification of directors, officers and controlling persons against liabilities arising under the Securities Act is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and therefore is unenforceable.

Item 16. Exhibits

(a) Exhibits:

- 4.1 Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated as of September 30, 1999, among the Company, Neversoft Entertainment, Inc., JCM Productions, Inc., Joel Jewett, Michael West and Christopher Ward.
- 5.1 Opinion of Robinson Silverman Pearce Aronsohn & Berman LLP as to the legality of securities being registered.
- 23.1 Consent of Robinson Silverman Pearce Aronsohn & Berman LLP (included as part of Exhibit 5.1).
- 23.2 Consent of KPMG LLP.

Item 17. Undertakings

The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The Company hereby further undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The Company hereby further undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the Prospectus, to each person to whom the Prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the Prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Exchange Act; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the Prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the Prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the Prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF NEVERSOFT AND THE SHAREHOLDERS

Neversoft and the Shareholders hereby represent and warrant to Activision and the Merger Subsidiary as follows:

3.1 Organization. Neversoft is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of California. Neversoft has all requisite corporate power and authority to carry on its business as it is now being conducted and to own or lease and to operate its properties. Neversoft is not qualified to transact business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction, and neither the nature of the property owned or leased by it nor the nature of the business conducted by it makes any such qualification necessary, other than such failures which do not and would not individually or in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect on Neversoft. True and complete copies of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Neversoft have previously been delivered or made available to Activision. For purposes of this Agreement, "Material Adverse Effect" with respect to a person or entity shall mean a material adverse effect on the business, assets, properties, financial condition or results of operations of such person or entity (in the case of Activision, Activision and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole), or on the ability of any person or entity timely to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.2. Authorization, Validity and Effect of Agreement. Each of Neversoft and the Shareholders has all requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate their respective obligations and the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Neversoft and the Shareholders and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by any and all necessary corporate action of Neversoft and by the Shareholders and no other action on the part of Neversoft or the Shareholders is necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Neversoft or the Shareholders and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. On the Closing Date, each of the Shareholders shall possess full authority and power to transfer to Activision all Neversoft Shares beneficially owned by him, free and clear of all Encumbrances (as defined in Section 3.3(b)) in exchange for Activision Common Stock. This Agreement has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Neversoft and the Shareholders and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Neversoft and the Shareholders, enforceable against Neversoft and the Shareholders in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.

3.3. Capitalization. (a) The authorized capital stock of Neversoft consists of 1,000 shares of the same class and series, no par value, 300 shares of which are issued and outstanding. All of the Neversoft Shares are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned of record and beneficially by the Shareholders. Schedule 3.3 hereto sets forth the ownership of Neversoft Shares by each of the Shareholders. There are outstanding no securities convertible into, exchangeable for, or carrying the right to acquire, equity securities of Neversoft, and no subscriptions, warrants, options, calls, rights (pre-emptive or other) or other arrangements or commitments obligating Neversoft to issue or dispose of any of its equity securities or any ownership interest therein.

(b) The Shareholders have good and valid title to the Neversoft Shares, free and clear of all liens, security interests, pledges, mortgages, rights of first refusal, options, proxies, voting trusts or other encumbrances ("Encumbrances").

3.4. No Subsidiaries. Neversoft does not have any direct or indirect Subsidiaries. For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" when used with respect to any party shall mean any corporation, partnership, joint venture, business trust or other entity, of which such party or a Subsidiary of such party, directly or indirectly, owns or controls at least a majority of the securities or other interests having by their terms ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the board of directors or others performing similar functions with respect to such corporation or other organization.

3.5. Other Interests. Neversoft does not own, directly or indirectly, any interest or investment (whether equity or debt) in any corporation, partnership, joint venture, business trust or other entity (other than investments in short-term investment securities).

3.6. No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance by Neversoft and the Shareholders of this Agreement do not, and the consummation by Neversoft and the Shareholders of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, with or without the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both, conflict with or violate (i) any provision of law, rule or regulation to which the Shareholders or Neversoft are subject, (ii) any order, judgment, injunction or decree binding upon or applicable to the Shareholders or Neversoft or binding upon the assets or properties of the Shareholders or Neversoft, (iii) any provision of the By-laws or Articles of Incorporation of Neversoft, or (iv) other than the consents and filings provided for in this Agreement, require any consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority which has not been obtained or made, except where the failure to obtain any such consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority would not individually or in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect on Neversoft.

3.7. Investment Intent. The Activision Common Stock to be issued to the Shareholders in connection with this Agreement is being acquired by each Shareholder for his own account, for investment purposes only and not with a view to the distribution of such shares or with any present intention of distributing any of such shares within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or reselling in violation of any other applicable securities laws, it being understood that the shares of Activision Common Stock to be issued to the Shareholders under this Agreement have not been registered under the Securities Act, and therefore cannot be sold unless registered under the Securities Act or unless an exemption from registration is available, and also subject to further restrictions under the provisions of Sections 6.1 and 6.2 hereof and the Warranty Escrow Agreement (as defined in Section 6.2). Each of the Shareholders will execute and deliver to Activision at or prior to the Closing an investment letter to that effect, the form of which is attached as Exhibit A to this Agreement.

The assets of Neversoft are fairly valued on the Financial Statements.

3.9. Litigation. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.9 hereto, there are (i) no continuing orders, injunctions or decrees of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority to which Neversoft or the Shareholders is a party or by which any of their respective properties or assets are bound or likely to be affected and (ii) no actions, suits or proceedings pending against Neversoft or the Shareholders or to which any of their respective properties or assets are subject or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, threatened against Neversoft or the Shareholders or to which any of their respective properties or assets are subject, at law or in equity, that in each such case could, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect on Neversoft.

(a) Neversoft has paid or caused to be paid all federal, state, local, foreign, and other taxes, and all deficiencies, or other additions to tax, interest, fines and penalties (collectively, "Taxes"), owed or accrued by it and due and payable through the date hereof (including any Taxes payable pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.1502-6 (and any similar state, local or foreign provision)).

(d) The 1999 Financial Statements reflect adequate reserves for Taxes payable by Neversoft for all taxable periods and portions thereof through the date of such financial statements.

(e) Since the date of the 1999 Financial Statements, Neversoft has made sufficient accrual for Taxes in accordance with sound accounting principles with respect to periods for which Tax Returns have not been filed and has paid sufficient estimated Taxes in respect thereof.

Neither Neversoft nor the Shareholders is aware of any claim for payment of any finder's fees, brokerage or agent's commissions or other like payments in connection with the negotiations leading to this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(h) Effect of Transaction. The execution of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not (either alone or upon the occurrence of any additional or subsequent events) constitute an event under any Employee Plan, Employee Agreement, trust or loan that will or may result in any payment (whether of severance pay or otherwise), acceleration, forgiveness of indebtedness, vesting, distribution, increase in benefits or obligation to fund benefits with respect to any Employee, except as set forth in Schedule 3.18(h) hereto.

No Neversoft Intellectual Property is the subject of any non-routine proceeding or outstanding decree, order, judgment, agreement, or stipulation restricting in any manner the use, transfer, or licensing thereof by Neversoft, or which may affect the validity, use or enforceability of such Neversoft Intellectual Property.

(c) With respect to each item of Neversoft Registered Intellectual Property, necessary registration, maintenance and renewal fees in connection with such Neversoft Registered Intellectual Property have been made and all necessary documents and certificates in connection with such Neversoft Registered Intellectual Property have been filed with the relevant patent, trademark or copyright authorities in the United States or abroad for the purposes of maintaining such Neversoft Registered Intellectual Property.

(d) Neversoft has the right to use, market, distribute, sell or license all Neversoft Intellectual Property used in its business as presently conducted and as it is expected to be conducted as of the Effective Time, including without limitation, all Intellectual Property used or to be used in the Neversoft Products (as defined below), and such rights to use, market, distribute, sell or license are sufficient for such conduct of their respective businesses.

(e) Neither the manufacture, development, publication, marketing, license, sale, distribution or use intended by Neversoft of any software products currently being licensed, produced or sold by Neversoft or currently under development by Neversoft (the "Neversoft Products") violates any license or agreement between Neversoft and any third party or infringes any Intellectual Property right, moral right or right of publicity or privacy of any other party, and there is no pending or, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, threatened claim or litigation contesting the validity, ownership or right to use, market, distribute, sell, license or dispose of any Neversoft Intellectual Property nor, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, is there any basis for any such claim under applicable law, nor has Neversoft received any notice asserting that any Neversoft Intellectual Property or the proposed use, marketing, distribution, sale, license or disposition thereof conflicts or will conflict with the rights of any other party, nor, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, is there any basis for any such assertion under applicable law. Schedule 3.19(e) hereto sets forth a list of all Neversoft Products.

(f) Neversoft has timely and satisfactorily complied with their respective milestone delivery requirements under all material agreements, if any, pursuant to which Neversoft has agreed with a person other than Activision or its affiliates to program, design or develop, whether for original use or for porting or conversion (for use on a different hardware platform or in a different language), any software products or any part thereof, except where the failure to so comply could not reasonably be expected to individually or in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Neversoft.

(g) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.19(g) hereto, to the extent that any work, invention, or material has been developed or created by a third party for Neversoft, Neversoft has a written agreement with such third party with respect thereto and Neversoft thereby has obtained ownership of, and is the exclusive owner of, or has a valid license to use, all Neversoft Intellectual Property in such work, material or invention by operation of law or by valid assignment or by agreement, as the case may be.

(h) Schedule 3.19(h) hereto lists all material contracts, licenses and agreements to which Neversoft is a party that are currently in effect (i) with respect to Neversoft Intellectual Property licensed or offered to any third party; or (ii) pursuant to which a third party has licensed or transferred any Intellectual Property to Neversoft. (i) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.19(i) hereto, the contracts, licenses and agreements listed in Schedule 3.19(h) are in full force and effect. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not violate or result in the breach, modification, cancellation, termination, or suspension of such contracts, licenses and agreements listed in Schedule 3.19(h) and will not cause the forfeiture or termination or give rise to a right of forfeiture or termination of any rights of Neversoft to any Neversoft Intellectual Property or impair the right of Neversoft after the Effective Time to use, market, distribute, sell or license any Neversoft Intellectual Property or portion thereof. Neversoft is in material compliance with, and has not materially breached any term of any of such contracts, licenses and agreements listed in Schedule 3.19(h) and, to the knowledge of the Shareholders, all other parties to such contracts, licenses and agreements listed in Schedule 3.19(h) are in compliance with, and have not breached any term of, such contracts, licenses and agreements. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.19(i) hereto, following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will be permitted to exercise all of Neversoft's rights under the contracts, licenses and agreements listed in Schedule 3.19(h) to the same extent Neversoft would have been able to had the transactions contemplated by this Agreement not occurred and without the payment of any additional funds other than ongoing fees, royalties or payments which Neversoft would otherwise be required to pay.

(j) Schedule 3.19(j) hereto lists all contracts, licenses and agreements between Neversoft and any third party wherein or whereby Neversoft has agreed to, or assumed, other than in the ordinary course of business, any obligation or duty to warrant, indemnify, hold harmless or otherwise assume or incur any obligation or liability with respect to the infringement or misappropriation by Neversoft or such third party of the Intellectual Property of any third party.

(k) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.19(k) hereto, (a) Neversoft has not received any notice or claim (whether written, oral or otherwise) challenging Neversoft's ownership or rights in the Neversoft Intellectual Property or claiming that any other person or entity has any legal or beneficial ownership with respect thereto; (b) all the Neversoft Intellectual Property rights owned by Neversoft and embodied in its products are legally valid and enforceable without any material qualification, limitation or restriction on their use; (c) Neversoft has not received any notice or claim (whether written or oral) challenging the validity or enforceability of any of the Neversoft Intellectual Property rights; and (d) to the Shareholders' knowledge, no third party is infringing or misappropriating any part of the Neversoft Intellectual Property.

(l) Neversoft has taken reasonable and practicable measures designed to protect its rights in its confidential information and trade secrets or any trade secrets or confidential information of third parties provided to Neversoft. None of Neversoft, or any employees or, to the Shareholders' knowledge, consultants of Neversoft, has permitted any such confidential information or trade secrets to be used, divulged or appropriated for the benefit of persons to the material detriment of Neversoft.

(m) Schedule 3.19(m) hereto sets forth a list of all Internet domain names used by Neversoft in its business (collectively, the "Domain Names"). Neversoft has, and after the Effective Time the Surviving Corporation will have, a valid registration and all material rights (free of any material restriction) in and to the Domain Names, including, without limitation, all rights necessary to continue to conduct Neversoft's business as it is currently conducted.

3.20. Consents. Except as set forth in Schedule 3.20 hereto, no consent, approval or authorization of, or exemption by, or filing with, any governmental authority or any third party is required to be obtained or made by the Shareholders in connection with the execution, delivery and performance by the Shareholders of this Agreement or the taking by the Shareholders of any other action contemplated hereby.

3.21. Insurance. Neversoft maintains, and has maintained or caused to be maintained, without interruption, during its existence, policies or binders of insurance covering such risk, and events, including personal injury, property damage, and general liability in amounts set forth on Schedule 3.21 hereto, and its current insurance policies will not terminate due to the consummation of the transactions contemplated under this Agreement. Neversoft has provided Activision prior to the Closing Date with true, complete and correct copies of all insurance policies maintained currently by Neversoft and all such policies are listed on Schedule 3.21 hereto.

3.22. Relationships with Suppliers, Licensors and Customers. No current distributor, customer of Neversoft or supplier to Neversoft has notified Neversoft of an intention to terminate or substantially alter its existing business relationship with Neversoft, nor has any licensor under a license agreement with Neversoft notified Neversoft of an intention to terminate or substantially alter Neversoft's rights under such license, which termination or alteration would have a Material Adverse Effect.

3.23. Bank Accounts. Schedule 3.23 hereto contains (a) a true and complete list of names and locations of all banks, trust companies, securities brokers, and other financial institutions at which Neversoft has an account or safe deposit box or maintains a banking, custodial, trading, trust, or other similar relationship, (b) a true and complete list and description of each such account, box and relationship, (c) a list of all signatories for each such account and box and (d) a list of all compensating balances required with respect to each such account.

3.24. Tax and Accounting Treatment. (a) Neither Neversoft nor the Shareholders have taken any action or engaged in any activities that would preclude the treatment of the Merger as a tax free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

(b) Except as set forth in Schedule 3.24(b), none of the Shareholders or Neversoft has taken any of the following actions since the inception of Neversoft: (i) any redemption or repurchase by Neversoft of any of its equity securities; (ii) any issuance of capital stock or other securities by Neversoft, any conversion of capital stock or equity securities by Neversoft, any recapitalization of Neversoft or any conversion of debt into equity; (iii) any grant, exercise, termination or modification of any options, warrants or rights to acquire capital stock or other equity securities of Neversoft or any stock appreciation, phantom stock or similar rights; (iv) any repayment by Neversoft of any indebtedness to any stockholder or other affiliate of Neversoft, or amendment of any terms of any indebtedness or other obligation by Neversoft to any stockholder or other affiliate of Neversoft; or (v) any contribution to the equity capital of Neversoft, other than pro rata capital contributions made by the stockholders at initial organization of Neversoft. Each of the Shareholders understands that any of the foregoing actions could preclude Activision's ability to account for the Merger under this Agreement as a pooling of interests.

3.25. Disclosure. No representation, warranty, statement or information made or furnished by the Shareholders, including but not limited to those contained in this Agreement, the Schedules hereto and each other instrument furnished or to be furnished to Activision pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, contains or shall contain any statement of a material fact that was untrue when made or omits or shall omit any material fact necessary to make the information contained in such representation, statement or information not misleading.

Except as described in the Activision SEC Reports (as defined in Section 4.5), Activision has no outstanding bonds, debentures, notes or other obligations the holders of which have or upon the happening of certain events would have the right to vote (or which are convertible into or exercisable for securities having the right to vote) with the stockholders of Activision on any matter. Except as described in the Activision SEC Reports and in other filings made by Activision with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), there are no existing options, warrants, calls, subscriptions, convertible securities, or other rights, agreements, stock appreciation rights or similar derivative securities or instruments or commitments which obligate Activision to issue, transfer or sell any Shares of Activision Common Stock or make any payments in lieu thereof other than options or warrants granted to employees, directors, consultants and licensors after the date of the most recent Activision SEC Report.

(b) The Activision Shares to be issued pursuant to this Agreement will, upon issuance in accordance with this Agreement, be duly authorized,

4.4. No Violation. The execution, delivery and performance by Activision of this Agreement and the consummation by Activision of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, with or without the giving of notice or the lapse of time, or both, conflict with or violate (i) any provision of law, rule or regulation to which Activision is subject, (ii) any order, judgment, injunction or decree binding upon or applicable to Activision or binding upon the assets or properties of Activision, (iii) violate any provision of the Certificate of Incorporation or the Bylaws of Activision; except, in each case, for violations which in the aggregate would not materially hinder or impair the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, or (iv) other than the filings provided for in this Agreement, require any consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority which has not been obtained or made, except where the failure to obtain any such consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority would not individually or in the aggregate have a Material Adverse Effect on Activision.

4.5. SEC Documents. Since March 31, 1998, Activision has timely filed with the SEC all forms, reports and documents required to be filed by Activision since March 31, 1998 under the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Securities Laws"), including, without limitation, (i) all Annual Reports on form 10-K, (ii) all Quarterly Reports on form 10-Q, (iii) all proxy statements relating to meetings of stockholders (whether annual or special), (iv) all Current Reports on form 8-K and (v) all other reports, schedules, registration statements and other documents, each as amended (collectively, the "Activision SEC Reports"), all of which were prepared in compliance in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the Securities Act. As of their respective dates, the Activision SEC Reports (i) complied as to form in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Securities Laws and (ii) did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the consolidated balance sheets of Activision included in or incorporated by reference into the Activision SEC Reports (including the related notes and schedules) fairly presents the consolidated financial position of Activision and its consolidated subsidiaries as of its date and each of the consolidated statements of operations, cash flows and shareholders' equity included in or incorporated by reference into the Activision SEC Reports (including any related notes and schedules) fairly presents the results of operations, cash flows and shareholders' equity, as the case may be, of Activision and its consolidated subsidiaries for the periods set forth therein (subject, in the case of unaudited statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments which would not be material in amount or effect), in each case in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied during the periods involved, except as may be noted therein and except, in the case of the unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-Q pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

4.6. Absence of Certain Changes. Since June 30, 1999, Activision has conducted its business in the ordinary course of such business and consistent with past practices and there has not been any:

(a) change, event or condition (whether or not covered by insurance) that has resulted in, or might reasonably be expected to result in, a Material Adverse Effect; arrangement or understanding with any person or firm that may result in the obligation of Activision or Neversoft to pay any finder's fees, brokerage or agent's commissions or other like payments in connection with the negotiations leading to this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. Activision is not aware of any claim for payment of any finder's fees, brokerage or agent's commissions or other like payments in connection with the negotiations leading to this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

4.10. Tax and Accounting Treatment. Neither Activision nor the Merger Subsidiary have taken any action or engaged in any activities that would preclude treatment of the Merger as a tax free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

4.11. Disclosure. No representation, warranty, statement or information made or furnished by Activision, including but not limited to those contained in this Agreement, the Schedules hereto and each other instrument furnished or to be furnished to the Shareholders pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, contains or shall contain any statement of a material fact that was untrue when made or omits or shall omit any material fact necessary to make the information contained in such representation, statement or information not misleading.

(g) Activision shall have received from each of the Shareholders an executed copy of an Investment Letter substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto.

(h) The Shareholders shall have delivered to Activision all consents required as described in Schedule 3.20, if any.

(i) The Shareholders shall have executed and delivered the Warranty Escrow Agreement substantially in the form of Exhibit B attached hereto.

(k) Activision shall have received from KPMG, independent auditors for Activision, a letter dated the date of the Closing (which may contain customary qualifications and assumptions), to the effect that KPMG concurs with Activision's management's conclusion that no conditions exist related to Activision or Neversoft that would preclude Activision from accounting for the Merger as a pooling of interests.

ARTICLE VI

COVENANTS AND OTHER AGREEMENTS

6.1 Restrictions on Sale of Activision Shares. The Shareholders acknowledge and agree that Activision Shares will be issued to the Shareholders without registration under the Securities Act, based upon the "private offering exemption", in reliance upon appropriate written representations from the Shareholders (as set forth in their respective Investment Letters attached hereto as Exhibit A); further evidenced by restrictive legends on the certificates representing Activision Shares and "stop transfer" instructions to Activision's transfer agent. Subject to Activision's obligations under Section 6.3(a), Activision Shares will be "restricted securities" within the meaning of the Securities Act and related rules and regulations. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Securities Act, the Shareholders acknowledge and agree that the Shareholders shall not have the right to sell, pledge, gift, hypothecate or otherwise dispose of the shares of Activision Common Stock until the issuance by Activision of its first earnings press release after the Effective Time containing at least thirty (30) days of combined operations of Activision's and Neversoft's businesses.

6.2. Share Hold Back. In order to insure that the representations, warranties and covenants made by the Shareholders under this Agreement are not breached, and in order to provide a nonexclusive source of indemnification of Activision pursuant to Article 7, Neversoft and the Shareholders agree that the certificates representing ten percent (10%) of the total number of Activision Shares issued to each Shareholder in connection with the Merger shall be deposited in an Escrow Account (the "Escrow Account") pursuant to a Warranty Escrow Agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Warranty Escrow Agreement") on the date of the Closing. Such Activision Shares shall be held in the Escrow Account during such period of time as set forth in the Warranty Escrow Agreement (the "Hold Period"). Any dividends and distributions with respect to such Activision Shares while held in the Escrow Account also shall be retained in the Escrow Account until the expiration of the Hold Period for the account of the Shareholders. Any offsets or deductions made from Activision Shares held in the Escrow Account on account of any breach of this Agreement shall be made on the last business day of the Hold Period, or at such other time as set forth in the Escrow Agreement, and shall be based upon the closing price of Activision Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market ("NASDAQ") on the date the Merger is consummated. All Activision Shares subject to such offset or deduction shall be canceled by Activision, and the remaining Activision Shares, together with any dividends paid or distributions made with respect to such Activision Shares that have not been canceled, shall be then delivered to the Shareholders in accordance with their respective interests. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Activision Shares held in the Escrow Account pursuant to the provisions of this Section 6.2 shall not be deemed the sole source of recourse by Activision for indemnification under this Agreement, and Neversoft and the Shareholders shall remain severally liable in accordance with Article 7.

6.3. Registration of Activision Shares.

(a) Registration on Form S-3. Activision agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to file with the SEC, as soon as practicable after the Closing Date, a registration statement on Form S-3, or on such other form as may be available, registering under the Securities Act, pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act ("Rule 415") (if available), the offer and sale in the future of all of the Activision Shares issued by Activision to the Shareholders pursuant to this Agreement. Activision further agrees to (a) use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC as soon as practicable, (b) maintain the effectiveness of such registration or successor registration statement filed by Activision for the purpose of registering the shares of Activision Common Stock (such registration statements being collectively referred to as the "Registration Statement") until Activision Shares are eligible to be resold without restriction on disposition pursuant to the Securities Act and its related rules and regulations, (c) update the prospectus included in the Registration Statement (the "Prospectus") from time to time as may be necessary to assure that the Prospectus does not make any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the Prospectus not misleading, and (d) provide such number of copies of the Registration Statement and the Prospectus (as so updated) to the Shareholders as they may reasonably request in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of Activision Shares covered by such Registration Statement.

(b) Costs and Expenses. Activision shall bear the costs incurred for its legal counsel, accounting and all other costs and expenses in connection with such registration including keeping the Registration Statement effective, excluding brokers' commissions and underwriters' fees, which may be incurred in connection with the preparation and filing of the Registration Statement pursuant to Section 6.3(a).

(c) Cooperation and Indemnification. (i) The Shareholders agree that they will provide all required cooperation and furnish all necessary information and enter into such agreements customarily required of selling stockholders in connection with the preparation of the Registration Statement filed under the terms of this Section 6.3, and the Shareholders will represent and warrant the accuracy and completeness of all written information so furnished for inclusion in the Registration Statement and will indemnify and hold Activision, and its directors, officers, shareholders, and underwriters harmless from and against any liability, loss or damage (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees), incurred by or sustained by, or asserted against, any of them, arising out of or based on any untrue statement (or alleged untrue statement) of a material fact contained in the information provided by the Shareholders or based on any omission (or alleged omission) to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(ii) Activision shall indemnify and hold the Shareholders harmless from and against any liability, loss or damage (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by or sustained by, or asserted against, any of them, arising out of or based on any untrue statement (or alleged untrue statement) of a material fact contained in the Registration Statement, or based on any omission (or alleged omission) to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, except to the extent such untrue statement of material fact (or alleged untrue statement) or omission (or alleged omission) related to information supplied by any of the Shareholders for inclusion in the Registration Statement.

6.4. Further Assurances. Each party hereto shall, at the request of the other party and at such other party's expense, execute and deliver any further instruments or documents and take all such further action as such other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the consummation of the Merger. If, at any time or from time to time after the Effective Time, any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement and to vest the Surviving Corporation with full right, title and possession to all assets, property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of either of the Constituent Corporations, the officers of the Surviving Corporation are fully authorized in the name of each Constituent Corporation or otherwise to take, and shall take, all such lawful and necessary action.

6.5. Confidentiality. Following the Closing, the Shareholders shall keep confidential all information concerning the business, operations, properties, assets and financial affairs of Neversoft and may disclose such information only upon receipt of prior written consent from Activision, as required by law, or if such disclosure is required (a) in connection with the Shareholders' filing of any state or federal income tax returns, or (b) by order of any judicial or administrative authority; provided, however, the Shareholders shall not be required to keep confidential information that (x) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by the Shareholders, (y) is or becomes available to the Shareholders on a nonconfidential basis from a source other than Activision or (z) the Shareholders or any of their affiliates is required to disclose pursuant to applicable law, rule, regulation or subpoena.

6.6. Publicity. Activision and the Shareholders shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements with respect to this Agreement or any transaction contemplated herein and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party, issue such press release or make such public statement as may be required by law or the rules of the applicable stock exchange if it has used its reasonable best efforts to consult with the other party and to obtain such party's consent but has been unable to do so in a timely manner.

6.7. Shareholder Approval. Each of the Shareholders has voted all shares of Neversoft Common Stock held by him in favor of the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and the approval of the Merger.

6.8. NASDAQ Listing. As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, Activision shall cause the Activision Shares to be listed, subject to official notice of issuance, on NASDAQ.

6.9. Tax Treatment. No party shall take any action either prior to or after the Effective Time that could reasonably be expected to cause the Merger to fail to qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code. Neversoft covenants that at the time of the Merger, its assets will satisfy the "substantially all" test within the meaning of Revenue Procedure 77-37, 1977-2 C.B. 568.

7.0. Accounting Treatment. The parties agree that the Merger shall be accounted on the books of Activision following the Merger under the "pooling of interests" method of accounting. The parties agree not to take any action or engage in any activities that could negatively effect the treatment of the Merger by Activision as a pooling of interests. To the extent any provisions contained in this Agreement would negatively affect such pooling treatment, such provision(s) shall be modified accordingly to allow for the accomplishment of the intended accounting treatment.

ARTICLE VII

SURVIVAL AND INDEMNIFICATION

7.1. Survival. Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 7.1, the representations and warranties made in this Agreement or in any agreement, certificate or other document executed at or prior to the Effective Time in connection herewith (each an "Ancillary Document") shall survive until the earlier to occur of (i) September 30, 2000 or (ii) the date upon which Activision's auditors complete their first fiscal year end audit of financial statements containing combined operations of Activision's and Neversoft's businesses (the "Survival Date"). No investigation by Activision or on Activision's behalf heretofore or hereafter conducted shall affect the representations, warranties or covenants of the Shareholders set forth in this Agreement.

7.2. Indemnification by the Shareholders. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Shareholders shall, severally and not jointly, defend, indemnify and hold harmless Activision and Merger Subsidiary, and all officers, directors and stockholders of Activision and Merger Subsidiary, and their heirs, personal and legal representatives, guardians, successors and assigns ("Activision Indemnified Parties"), from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, taxes, interest, fines, penalties, suits, actions, proceedings, demands, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys', accountants' and experts' fees and court costs) of every kind and nature (collectively, "Losses") arising out of or resulting from any breach by Neversoft or the Shareholders of any representation, warranty, agreement or covenant made by them in this Agreement. The Shareholders' liability to indemnify any Activision Indemnified Parties shall be in proportion to his or her respective shareholdings of Neversoft as of the Closing Date.

7.3. Indemnification Procedures. Promptly after receipt by an Activision Indemnified Party under this Section of notice of the commencement of any action or the incurrence of any Loss, such Activision Indemnified Party will, if a claim in respect of such action is to be made against any indemnifying party under this Section, notify the indemnifying party in writing of the commencement of such action. Upon receipt of such notice the indemnifying party or parties shall have the right to assume and control the defense of such action with counsel of its choice, subject to the approval of the Activision Indemnified Party, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Activision Indemnified Parties shall have the right to participate in the defense of any action and to be represented by counsel of its or their own selection in connection with such action and to be kept fully and completely informed by the indemnifying party and its counsel as to the status of the action at all stages of the proceedings in such action, all at the Activision Indemnified Parties' cost and expense. The Activision Indemnified Party shall cooperate with the indemnifying party in any defense which the indemnifying party assumes. Activision shall be entitled to settle any action solely for monetary damages with respect to which it controls the defense. Neversoft shall be entitled to settle any action solely for monetary damages with respect to which it controls the defense, subject to the prior consent of Activision which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The failure to notify an indemnifying party promptly of the commencement of any such action will not relieve him or it of any liability that he may have to any Activision Indemnified Party.

7.4. Limitation of Liability. For purposes of this Article 7:

(a) The Shareholders shall not have any liability to indemnify the Activision Indemnified Parties in respect of Losses incurred by Activision unless and until the aggregate amount of Losses exceeds One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000), at which time the Shareholders shall be liable to indemnify Activision for the full amount of such Losses; and that recovery by the Activision Indemnified Parties from the Shareholders in respect of all Losses shall be limited to an aggregate dollar amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the product of (i) 698,835 and (ii) the closing price of Activision Common Stock on NASDAQ on the date the Merger is consummated. The Shareholders' liability under Section 7.1 and this Section 7.4(a) shall be several, not joint, and shall be in proportion to their respective shareholdings of Neversoft as of the Closing Date. Any claim for indemnification by Activision with respect to a Shareholder shall be settled by delivery to Activision of a number of shares of Activision Common Stock equal to such Shareholder's allocable portion of the Losses for which such Shareholder is liable divided by the closing price of Activision Common Stock on NASDAQ on the date the Merger is consummated (subject to adjustment for any stock splits, reverse splits, recapitalizations or similar transactions occurring after the Closing).

(b) Claims for Indemnification. No claim for indemnification will be valid unless a Claim Notice (as defined the Warranty Escrow Agreement) shall have been delivered pursuant to the Warranty Escrow Agreement on or prior to April 25, 2000, after which date the obligation to indemnify shall terminate with respect to any claim except those which were specifically identified in a Claim Notice prior to such date.

7.5. Claims Resolution Procedure. The parties shall act in good faith as expeditiously as possible to resolve any and all claims for indemnification. To the extent any claims are not Finally Resolved (as defined in the Warranty Escrow Agreement) on or before April 30, 2000 (the "Claims Resolution Date"), then the claims shall be resolved in accordance with the following arbitration procedure:

(a) Each of Activision, on the one hand, and the Shareholders, on the other hand, shall select and appoint an arbitrator within five (5) days after the Claims Resolution Date to finally settle all unresolved claims. An arbitrator shall be selected and appointed by notice from one party (treating the Shareholders as a single party) to the other. The two arbitrators so selected shall select a third arbitrator and give written notice to the parties hereto of such selection within ten (10) days after the Claims Resolution Date. If the two arbitrators cannot agree on a third arbitrator within such ten (10) day period, then each of them shall nominate one person to serve as the third arbitrator and the third arbitrator shall be selected from the two nominees by lot.

(b) The arbitration shall be conducted jointly by the three arbitrators, who shall review all submissions by the parties with respect to the claim and make an award, by majority vote, within forty-five (45) days after the Claims Resolution Date, which award, when signed by each of the arbitrators, shall be final and binding on the parties. Unless otherwise determined by the arbitrators by majority vote, (i) no hearings shall be held, and the decision shall be rendered based on written submissions by the parties, and (ii) all written submissions must be made by the parties within five (5) days after the date on which the third arbitrator is appointed. Once the award is made, a claim shall be Finally Resolved for purposes of the Warranty Escrow Agreement.

(c) If either party shall refuse or neglect to select and appoint an arbitrator within five (5) days after the Claims Resolution Date in accordance with Section 7.5(a), then the arbitrator so appointed by the first party, acting alone as the sole arbitrator, shall proceed to arbitrate and resolve all claims, and such arbitrator's award in writing signed by such arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties.

(d) All expenses of the arbitration shall be shared equally by Activision, on the one hand, and the Shareholders, on the other, provided that the arbitrator(s) shall have the right to award fees and expenses to the prevailing party in the arbitration if they deem it appropriate under the circumstances, and except that each party shall bear the costs and fees of the arbitrator appointed by such party. The parties hereto agree that they will cooperate in good faith to allow any arbitration hereunder to occur promptly and be concluded as quickly as is reasonably possible.

(e) Judgment of any arbitration conducted hereunder may be entered on the arbitrators' award in any court having jurisdiction, and each party hereby consents to the jurisdiction of the California state courts sitting in Los Angeles County for this purpose.

(a) Voting Rights. The Shareholders shall have the right to vote the Escrow Shares owned by them of record with respect to any matter submitted to a vote of the holders of Activision Common Stock.

(b) Dividends and Distributions. In the case that during the term of this Agreement the Escrow Agent or the Shareholders shall receive or shall have credited to it or them, as the case may be, as a dividend or other distribution upon or on account of any of the Escrow Shares any (i) cash dividends paid by Activision; (ii) stock dividends in the form of additional shares of Activision Common Stock or other securities of Activision; or (iii) any other funds or any property through a distribution by Activision to its stockholders or a capital transaction affecting the Activision Common Stock, the Escrow Agent shall hold, or in the event any of such funds or property are received by the Shareholders, the Shareholders shall promptly deposit with the Escrow Agent for the Escrow Agent to hold, such cash or other securities or property, in escrow as part of the Escrow Property in accordance with this Escrow Agreement. If at any time during the term of this Escrow Agreement Activision shall offer to its shareholders a choice between receiving a stock dividend or a cash dividend, the Shareholders shall make the determination as to which type of dividend shall be received by them with respect to the Escrow Shares and shall notify Activision and the Escrow Agent accordingly. The Escrow Agent shall receive a prior written notice of any dividends or distributions payable to the Shareholders upon or on account of any of the Escrow Shares.

(c) Tax Treatment. Activision and the Shareholders agree that, for United States Federal income tax purposes, the Shareholders will be treated as the sole owners of the Escrow Shares.

5. Disbursements of Escrow Property.

(a) Joint Written Direction. Escrow Agent shall release the Escrow Property, at any time and from time to time, in whole or in part, in accordance with a Joint Written Direction.

(b) Claim. (i) Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Activision may deliver to the Shareholders, with a copy to Escrow Agent, at any time prior to the expiration of the Hold Period a Claim Notice in accordance with the notice provisions of this Escrow Agreement.

(ii) Upon receipt of any Claim Notice, Escrow Agent shall, within two (2) business days, make entries or notations in the account records relating to the Escrow Property, indicating that property in the amount of the Claim is reserved to satisfy a Claim, and identifying the date of such Claim Notice.

(iii) A Shareholder may deliver to Activision, with a copy to Escrow Agent, a Shareholder Objection Notice, within thirty (30) days of delivery of a Claim Notice.

(iv) If a Shareholder Objection Notice is not delivered to Activision and Escrow Agent within such thirty (30) day-period, then upon the written direction of Activision to Escrow Agent, with a copy to the Shareholders, the Escrow Agent shall deliver to Activision a number of Escrow Shares and other Escrow Property equal in value to the Claim.

(v) If a Shareholder Objection Notice is timely given, then the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold all Escrow Property until the Claim is Finally Resolved.

(c) Expiration of Escrow Period. Upon the expiration of the Hold Period, Escrow Agent shall: (i) retain Escrow Property with a value sufficient to pay in full all Claims, if any, that are the subject of a Claim Notice delivered to Escrow Agent that have not been Finally Resolved at such time, until such Claims have been Finally Resolved; and (ii) deliver the balance of the Escrow Property to the Shareholders in accordance with their interests. If Escrow Agent has not received any Claim Notice delivered by the end of the Hold Period, Escrow Agent shall deliver the balance of the Escrow Property to the Shareholders in accordance with their interests. The parties agree that the Escrow Agent shall receive a prior written notice of the termination of the Hold Period.

(d) Priorities; Valuations; Releases from the Escrow Property. For determining the value of Escrow Property at any time, whether (i) for purposes of determining the number of Escrow Shares to be released to Activision pursuant to Section 5(b)(iv), (ii) for purposes of determining the number of Escrow Shares to be released to Activision on account of any Claim that is Finally Resolved, and (iii) for purposes of determining the number of Escrow Shares to be retained by Escrow Agent at the expiration of the Hold Period pursuant to Section 5(c), the value of Escrow Shares shall be based upon the closing price of Activision Common Stock on the Nasdaq National Market ("NASDAQ") on the date the Merger was consummated. The parties agree that following the consummation of the Merger, the Escrow Agent shall receive a written notice of the closing price of Activision Common Stock on NASDAQ on the date the Merger was consummated.

(e) Release of Stock Powers. Whenever the Escrow Agent releases Escrow Shares to Activision, it shall also release to Activision Stock Powers associated with the released Escrow Shares. Whenever the Escrow Agent is required to continue to hold Escrow Shares, it shall continue to hold sufficient Stock Powers with respect to such Escrow Shares to administer the Escrow Property under the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Cancellation of Escrow Shares. All Escrow Shares released to Activision shall be canceled.

(g) Any cash, securities or other property received by Escrow Agent pursuant to Section 4(b) on account of the Escrow Shares shall be held together with the Escrow Shares on account of which such cash, securities or other property was distributed, and whenever any Escrow Shares are released to Activision or to the Shareholders, the other cash, security or other property associated with such released Escrow Shares shall also be released. The fair market value of all such other cash, securities and other property shall be taken into account when determining the value of Escrow Property to be released to a party pursuant to this Escrow Agreement.

(h) The parties acknowledge that the Escrow Property is owned of record by, and, assuming there are no Claims, will ultimately be distributed to each Shareholder in the amount set forth next to such Shareholder's name on Exhibit 1 hereto. Whenever any Escrow Property is released to Activision, it shall be released from the Escrow Property held of record by each Shareholder in proportion to such Shareholder's percentage interest of Escrow Shares as set forth on Exhibit 1.

6. Deposit Into Court. If, at any time, there shall exist any dispute between Activision and the Shareholders with respect to the holding or disposition of any portion of the Escrow Property or any other obligations of Escrow Agent hereunder, or if at any time Escrow Agent is unable to determine, to Escrow Agent's sole satisfaction, the proper disposition of any portion of the Escrow Property or Escrow Agent's proper actions with respect to its obligations hereunder, or if the parties have not within thirty (30) days of the furnishing by Escrow Agent of a notice of resignation pursuant to Section 8 of this Agreement, appointed a successor Escrow Agent to act hereunder, then Escrow Agent may, in its sole discretion, take either or both of the following actions:

(a) suspend the performance of any of its obligations under this Escrow Agreement until such dispute or uncertainty shall be resolved to the sole satisfaction of Escrow Agent or until a successor Escrow Agent shall have been appointed (as the case may be); provided however, that Escrow Agent shall continue to invest any cash in the Escrow Property in accordance with Section 7 of this Agreement; and/or

(b) petition (by means of an interpleader action or any other appropriate method) any court of competent jurisdiction in Los Angeles County, California, for instructions with respect to such dispute or uncertainty, and pay and deposit into such court all funds, securities and other property held by it as part of the Escrow Property for holding and disposition in accordance with the instructions of such court.

Escrow Agent shall have no liability to Activision or the Shareholders, or any other person, with respect to any such suspension of performance or disbursement into court, specifically including any liability or claimed liability that may arise, or be alleged to have arisen, out of or as a result of any delay in the disbursement of funds held in the Escrow Funds or any delay in or with respect to any other action required or requested of Escrow Agent, other than as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Escrow Agent.

7. Investment of Funds.

(a) Within two (2) business days following the receipt of any funds held as part of the Escrow Property, Escrow Agent shall invest such funds (i) in money market accounts issued by any bank, bank and trust company, or national banking association (including Escrow Agent and its affiliates) or (ii) otherwise pursuant to a Joint Written Direction (subject to applicable minimum investments), Activision to not unreasonably withhold consent to any reasonable investment the Shareholders may wish to make. Upon the maturity thereof, Escrow Agent shall invest such monies in an interest-bearing money market account or accounts at a nationally recognized commercial bank (including Escrow Agent or its affiliates) or otherwise as the parties shall direct by Joint Written Direction (subject to applicable minimum investments).

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Escrow Agent may, without notice to the parties, sell or liquidate any of the foregoing investments at any time if the proceeds of such investment are required for any release of funds permitted or required hereunder, and Escrow Agent shall not be liable or responsible for any loss, cost or penalty resulting from any such sale or liquidation. With respect to any funds received by Escrow Agent for deposit into the Escrow Property or any Joint Written Direction received by Escrow Agent with respect to investment of any funds after twelve o'clock, p.m., Los Angeles time, Escrow Agent shall not be required to invest such funds or to effect such investment instruction until the next day upon which banks in Los Angeles are open for business.

8. Resignation and Removal of Escrow Agent. Escrow Agent may resign from the performance of its duties hereunder at any time by giving not less than twenty (20) days' prior written notice to the parties, or may be removed, with or without cause, by the parties, acting jointly by furnishing a Joint Written Direction to Escrow Agent, at any time by the giving of ten (10) days' prior written notice to Escrow Agent. Such resignation or removal shall take effect upon the appointment of a successor escrow agent as provided below or as otherwise agreed by Activision, the Shareholders and Escrow Agent. Upon any such notice of resignation or removal, Activision and the Shareholders jointly shall appoint a successor Escrow Agent hereunder, which shall be a commercial bank, trust company or other financial institution with offices in the United States with a combined capital and surplus in excess of $100,000,000. Upon the acceptance in writing of any appointment as Escrow Agent hereunder by a successor Escrow Agent, such successor Escrow Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Escrow Agent, and the retiring Escrow Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Escrow Agreement, but shall not be discharged from any liability for actions taken as Escrow Agent hereunder prior to such succession. After any retiring Escrow Agent's resignation or removal, the provisions of this Escrow Agreement shall inure to its benefit as to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was Escrow Agent under this Escrow Agreement. In the event that a successor escrow agent is not so appointed, then Escrow Agent may relinquish its custody of the Escrow Property by delivering the Escrow Property to (a) any bank or trust company in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, which is willing to act as escrow agent thereunder in place and instead of Escrow Agent, or (b) the clerk or other proper officer of a court of competent jurisdiction as may be permitted by law within the County of Los Angeles, State of California. The fee of any such bank or trust company or court officer shall be borne one-half by Activision and one-half by the Shareholders. Upon such delivery, Escrow Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations under this Escrow Agreement, but shall not be discharged from any liability for actions taken as Escrow Agent hereunder prior to such delivery.

9. Liability of Escrow Agent.

(a) Escrow Agent shall have no liability or obligation with respect to the Escrow Property except for Escrow Agent's willful misconduct or gross negligence. Escrow Agent's sole responsibility shall be for the safekeeping, investment, and disbursement of the Escrow Property in accordance with the terms of this Escrow Agreement. Escrow Agent shall have no implied duties or obligations and shall not be charged with knowledge or notice of any fact or circumstance not specifically set forth herein. Escrow Agent may rely upon any instrument, not only as to its due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein, which Escrow Agent shall in good faith believe to be genuine, to have been signed or presented by the person or parties purporting to sign the same and to conform to the provisions of this Escrow Agreement. In no event shall Escrow Agent be liable for incidental, indirect, special, consequential or punitive damages. Escrow Agent shall not be obligated to take any legal action or commence any proceeding in connection with the Escrow Property, any account in which Escrow Property is deposited, this Escrow Agreement or the Merger Agreement, or to appear in, prosecute or defend any such legal action or proceeding. Escrow Agent may consult legal counsel selected by it in the event of any dispute or question as to the construction of any of the provisions of this Agreement or of any other agreement or of its duties hereunder, and shall incur no liability and shall be fully indemnified from any liability whatsoever in acting in accordance with the opinion or instruction of such counsel. Activision and the Shareholders, jointly and severally, shall promptly pay, upon demand, the reasonable fees and expenses of any such counsel.

(b) The Escrow Agent is authorized, in its sole discretion, to comply with orders issued or process entered by any court with respect to the Escrow Property, without determination by the Escrow Agent of such court's jurisdiction in the matter. If any portion of the Escrow Property is at any time attached, garnished or levied upon under any court order, or in case the payment, assignment, transfer, conveyance or delivery of any such property shall be stayed or enjoined by any court order, or in case any order, judgment or decree shall be made or entered by any court affecting such property or any part of such proceeds, then and in any such event, the Escrow Agent is authorized, in its sole discretion, to rely upon and comply with any such order, writ, judgment or decree which it is advised by legal counsel selected by it is binding upon it without the need for appeal or other action; and if the Escrow Agent complies with any such order, writ, judgment or decree, it shall not be liable to any of the parties or to any other person or entity by reason of such compliance even though such order, writ, judgment or decree may be subsequently reversed, modified, annulled, set aside or vacated. Escrow Agent shall give prompt written notice to Activision and the Shareholders of its compliance with any such order, writ, judgment or decree.

10. Indemnification of Escrow Agent. From and at all times after the date of this Escrow Agreement, Activision and the Shareholders shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law and to the extent provided herein, indemnify and hold harmless Escrow Agent and each director, officer, employee, attorney, agent and affiliate of Escrow Agent (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") against any and all actions, claims (whether or not valid), losses, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind or nature whatsoever (including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses) incurred by or asserted against any of the Indemnified Parties from and after the date of this Agreement, whether direct, indirect or consequential, as a result of or arising from or in any way relating to any claim, demand, suit, action or proceeding (including any inquiry or investigation) by any person (including, without limitation, Activision or a Shareholder), whether threatened or initiated, asserting a claim for any legal or equitable remedy against any person under any statute or regulation (including, but not limited to, any federal or state securities laws, or under any common law or equitable cause or otherwise), arising from or in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, performance or failure of performance of this Escrow Agreement or any transactions contemplated herein, whether or not any such Indemnified Party is a party to any such action, proceeding, suit or the target of any such inquiry or investigation; provided, however, that no Indemnified Party shall have the right to be indemnified hereunder for any liability finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, subject to no further appeal, to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnified Party. If any such action or claim shall be brought or asserted against any Indemnified Party, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify Activision and the Shareholders in writing, and Activision and the Shareholders shall assume the defense of such action or claim, including the employment of counsel and the payment of all expenses. Such Indemnified Party shall, in its sole discretion, have the right to employ separate counsel (who may be selected by such Indemnified Party in its sole discretion) in any such action and to participate in the defense of such action, and the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be paid by such Indemnified Party, except that Activision and/or the Shareholders shall be required to pay such fees and expenses if (a) Activision and/or the Shareholders agree to pay such fees and expenses, or (b) Activision and/or the Shareholders shall fail to assume the defense of such action or proceeding or shall fail, in the reasonable discretion of such Indemnified Party, to employ counsel satisfactory to the Indemnified Party in any such action or proceeding, (c) Activision and/or the Shareholders are the plaintiff in any such action or proceeding or (d) the named parties to any such action or proceeding (including any impleaded parties) include both Indemnified Party and Activision and/or the Shareholders, and Indemnified Party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to it which are different from or additional to those available to Activision or the Shareholders; provided, however, in the case of clause (d) Activision and the Shareholders shall only be responsible for any fees of the Indemnified Party arising from additional or different legal defenses available to it. Activision and the Shareholders shall be liable to pay fees and expenses of counsel pursuant to the preceding sentence, except that any obligation to pay under clause (a) shall apply only to the party so agreeing. All such fees and expenses payable by Activision and/or the Shareholders pursuant to the foregoing sentence shall be paid from time to time as incurred, both in advance of and after the final disposition of such action or claim. All of the foregoing losses, damages, costs and expenses of the Indemnified Parties shall be payable by Activision and the Shareholders upon demand by such Indemnified Party. The obligations of Activision and the Shareholders under this Section 10 shall survive any termination of this Escrow Agreement and the resignation or removal of Escrow Agent.

The parties agree that neither the payment by Activision or the Shareholders of any claim by Escrow Agent for indemnification hereunder nor the disbursement of any amounts to Escrow Agent from the Escrow Property in respect of a claim by Escrow Agent for indemnification shall impair, limit, modify, or affect, as between Activision and the Shareholders, the respective rights and obligations of Activision, on the one hand, and the Shareholders, on the other hand, under the Merger Agreement .

The obligations of Activision and the Shareholders under this Section 10 shall be several and not joint, and unless otherwise allocated pursuant to Section 23 of this Escrow Agreement, shall be allocated one-half to Activision and one-half to the Shareholders severally in accordance with their pro rata interests in Neversoft upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

11. Fees and Expenses of Escrow Agent. Activision shall compensate Escrow Agent for its services hereunder in accordance with Exhibit 3 attached to this Agreement and, in addition, shall reimburse Escrow Agent for all of its reasonable and actual out-of-pocket expenses, including travel expenses, telephone and facsimile transmission costs, postage (including express mail and overnight delivery charges), copying charges and the like. All of the compensation and reimbursement obligations set forth in this Section 11 shall be payable by Activision upon demand by Escrow Agent. The obligations of Activision under this Section 11 shall survive any termination of this Escrow Agreement and the resignation or removal of Escrow Agent.

12. Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue. In the event that any party commences a lawsuit or other proceeding relating to or arising from this Escrow Agreement, the parties agree that the United States District Court sitting in Los Angeles, California shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction over any such proceeding. If such court lacks federal subject matter jurisdiction, the parties agree that the California State courts sitting in Los Angeles County, California shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction. Any of these courts shall be proper venue for any such lawsuit or judicial proceeding and the parties waive any objection to such venue. The parties consent to and agree to submit to the jurisdiction of any of the courts specified herein and agree to accept service or process to vest personal jurisdiction over them in any of these courts.

14. Amendment or Waiver. This Escrow Agreement may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated only by a writing signed by the parties and Escrow Agent. No delay or omission by any party in exercising any right with respect to this Agreement shall operate as a waiver. A waiver on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar to, or waiver of, any right or remedy on any future occasion.

15. Severability. 18. Binding Effect. All of the terms of this Escrow Agreement, as amended from time to time, shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the respective heirs, successors and assigns of Activision, the Shareholders and Escrow Agent.

19. Execution in Counterparts. This Escrow Agreement and any Joint Written Direction may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same agreement or direction. Each counterpart may consist of a number of copies hereof each signed by less than all, but together signed by all of the parties hereto. In the event that any signature is delivered by facsimile transmission, such signature shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf such signature is executed) the same with the same force and effect as if such facsimile signature were the original thereof.

20. Termination. Upon the first to occur of the disbursement or release of all Escrow Property pursuant to Joint Written Directions or the disbursement or release of all Escrow Property into court pursuant to Section 6 of this Agreement, this Escrow Agreement shall terminate and Escrow Agent shall have no further obligation or liability whatsoever with respect to this Escrow Agreement or the Escrow Property.

Nothing herein shall preclude the Escrow Agent from acting in any other capacity for Activision or the Shareholders or for any other entity.

22. Construction. When used herein the masculine includes the feminine and neuter and the singular includes the plural and vice versa.

23. Attorneys' Fees. Should an action be instituted by any of the parties to this Agreement in any court of law or equity pertaining to the enforcement of any of the provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover, in addition to any judgment or decree rendered in such action, all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses.

24. No Party Deemed Drafter. The parties agree that no one party shall be deemed to be the drafter of this Agreement and that in the event this Agreement is ever construed by a court of law or equity, such court shall not construe this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement against any party as the drafter of the Agreement.
